Belarusian State University

- 25-30 international projects implemented at the university annually

- projects are focused on academic exchanges, modernization of university management, design of joint study programs, infrastructure development, organization of conferences, seminars and workshops, etc.

- international projects implemented within such programs as Tempus, Erasmus Mundus, Jean Monnet, EU Cross-Border cooperation programs, DAAD, FPB-Belarus, SIDA, VISBY, Baltic University, CIMO, Visegrad Fund, CEI Fund, Eurasia, UNICEF, UNESCO and many others
BSU Strategic priority: Enhancing the quality of education

Project proposals:
- Development of Joint International Master and Doctoral degree programs in different fields of mutual interest
- Organization of international conferences, seminars, trainings and workshops
- Organization of international academic mobility
- Establishing international centres and affiliated structures to improve students communication skills and competences
- Development of the e-learning and distance learning technologies
- Networking with employers to harmonize curricula in line with international labour market demands
Etc.

BSU follows Strategic development program for 2011-2015 years, Policy in the sphere of Quality and annually set up Goals.

Belarusian State University

BSU Strategic priority: Capacity building and infrastructure development

Project proposals:
- Modernization of university management on the basis of international experience
- Development of the university Quality Management System
- Improvement of financial management to meet requirements of EU in the sphere of international projects
- Strengthening structures and services for knowledge transfer, research and innovation
- Informatization of university management, Etc.

In 2012 BSU has designed the internationalization strategic plan which was adopted by the top administration.

BSU Strategic priority: Internationalization

Project proposals:

- Internationalization strategies, policies and procedures
- Professional training for staff involved in management of internationalization
- Designing institutional foreign language test to support academic mobility
- Support services for international students and staff
- Academic writing for researches
- Tools for mapping and profiling internationalization activities and objectives

Etc.

What?
The Mission of BSU is to comply with intellectual, cultural and social demands and interests of the individual, society and state and to facilitate the sustainable development of the country.

BSU Strategic priority: Promoting University’s Third Mission

Project proposals:
- Regional centres of sustainable development at the university
- University Law Clinic to provide free assistance for citizens
- Promoting business incubators and students start-up centres
- Centers for social adaptation of disabled persons, orphans and elders

Belarusian State University
Belarusian State University

Prospective topics for international projects within BSU Faculties and Institutes

- Green chemistry
- Energy efficiency
- Astrophysics
- Quantum Optics
- Demography and GIS
- Biotechnology
- Moderns statistics and Applied Math
- Logistics, economical cybernetics
- International tourism
- International relations and law
- EU-related studies
- Languages and intercultural communication
- East-European studies and sovetology
- Record management and information security

Etc.

Each BSU Faculty and Institute has a team of project leaders – a highly internationalized segment of academic community – who involved in international cooperation

International programs and projects office – young and enthusiastic team which provides support for BSU students, staff and researcher in cooperation within international projects

Our major functions:
- Partner search
- Grant writing
- Project management
- Legal assistance

Contacts:
Tel: +375-17-2095447
E-mail: ippo@bsu.by
Web: http://www.bsu.by/en/179591

International Programs and Projects Office was created in 2009 within the Department for International Cooperation. It aims at raising funding for research and education projects.